Situation and Description

Guisborough is a busy market town approximately 10 miles east of Middlesbrough and 20 miles west of Whitby, popular with commuters and tourists.

The premises are prominently situated fronting Fountain Street, close to Westgate, the main retail area and Cleveland Gate Retail Park which includes Marks & Spencer, B&M, Aldi & Iceland.

There are several national and regional retailers represented nearby including Sainsburys, Morrisons, HSBC and trade operators including Howdens, Screwfix & Kwik fit.

Originally developed as a printing works and more recently used as a gym, the premises are substantial, providing accommodation that may be suitable for a range of uses including retail, showroom, studio or workspace with large open areas on the ground floor with studio space and supporting staff facilities on the first and second floor. Part of the first floor is double height with potential for another level.

Parking is available immediately to the front of the premises and there are several alternative car parks nearby.

Accommodation

We calculate that the premises provide the following approximate net internal areas and dimensions.
