Lingfield House is the majestic centre piece of this successful business park in Darlington.

Concierge, controlled access and even a cupcake or two from our café are waiting for you and your business. A plentiful supply of parking for employees and visitors alike is available around this dramatic art deco style building in the centre of our neighbourhood.

The double height entrance and reception makes the ultimate first impression. Your business will be made to feel at home, thanks to our dedicated concierge, who will welcome your visitors and take them to exclusive meeting rooms where you can greet them with confidence.

Sounds expensive? You couldn't be more wrong

We've designed this space with small businesses in mind. You can expect flexible monthly agreements, simple 'plug in and play' connectivity packages, giving you access to our 100MB bearer and enjoy the company of like minded people to support you.

Flexibility and freedom is our mantra – and we use this for both our agreements and range of space.

We've even created a unique 'money-back' guarantee* for companies that are not satisfied with our services or standard of office space.

Making the right connections

You'll also be able to access our 100Mb bearer now available at Lingfield House - giving you great connectivity and freedom with plenty of safe, communal hotspots across the park. Lease lines are available - based on low cost, monthly agreements supported by Blue Saffron, one of the UK's largest IT and communications specialists.

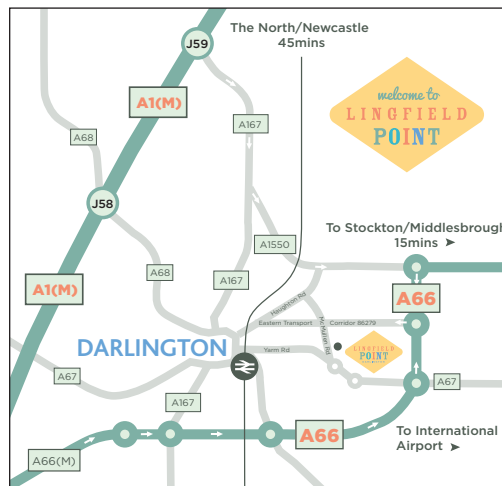

Lingfield Point – where good business feels at home.
